Haaaah...

Flashback

We're just starting, after all~

Your guitar playing is bad

Do your best~

I wasn't able to sparkle during my "Kasumi on-stage" from a while back...

It shouldn't have been like that~~~!

I have to do some secret training!

Now that it's come to this,

I'll surprise everyone with my sudden improvement~

What's she thinking about?

Kasumi-chan you're so cool!

Isn't that great?

You improved so quickly!

Or something like that, hehehe~

GRIN

Kasumi,

about later-

Sorry Arisa, I have something to do today, so I'll go first!

Bye~

Ah, wait!

Alright, let's do this!

looks around

There's no one in here, right...?

Twi~nkle, Twi~nkle, Li~ttle Star~

Woah!

Ah, you're from the same class, right...?

...Hanazono Tae-chan!

You're so bad at that, huh?

You're Toyama-san, right?

Let me borrow that.

It should be like this!

Waaah~

Woah, amazing!

Of course, the amount of practice we've had is different,

and I use this room, so get out.

Amount of practice...

Huh!?

Tae-chan, please!

Make me your disciple!

A disciple? You?

But, but!

I like to practice by myself, so let's just play separately.

and really amazing,

You're so cool,

That's why I want you to teach me!

I also want to be able to make that kind of music!

I'll do my best!

I'm strict, so... Are you going to be able to follow?

I get it! I understand already!

GULP

Alright, this may be sudden, but...

When you perform, you will use up a lot of your energy.

nod

nod

For a guitarist, stamina is important!

First, we'll be jogging!

This is to be able to play during lives properly!

Ehhh!?

You have more stamina than I expected.

pant

pant

Eehhh~

To jog for guitar practice, who would've expected...

It builds your stamina. It makes it easier to think when you do light exercises.

Well then, let's start with the fundamental chords.

Ah!

Ma'am!

Twinkle, Twinkle!

I want to be able to play "Twinkle Twinkle, Little Star!"

Why that again?

Do

is star-shaped!

Because this guitar

That's why the first song I want to play with this guitar is "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star!"

Hehe,

...

Toyama-san, you're funny.

Don't laugh at me!

Quit with the "Master."

Please take care of me, Master Tae!

YA~Y!

Then I'll teach you until you're able to do that.

Several days later...

How I Wonder~♪

What you are~♪

104 104

I did it!!!

It's thanks to you, Otae!

O- Otae?!

Mm, yep. I guess you're a little bit better now.

Don't go around giving people weird nicknames!

Isn't it fine~?

You told me not to call you Master, so I thought of something polite!

I don't want it!

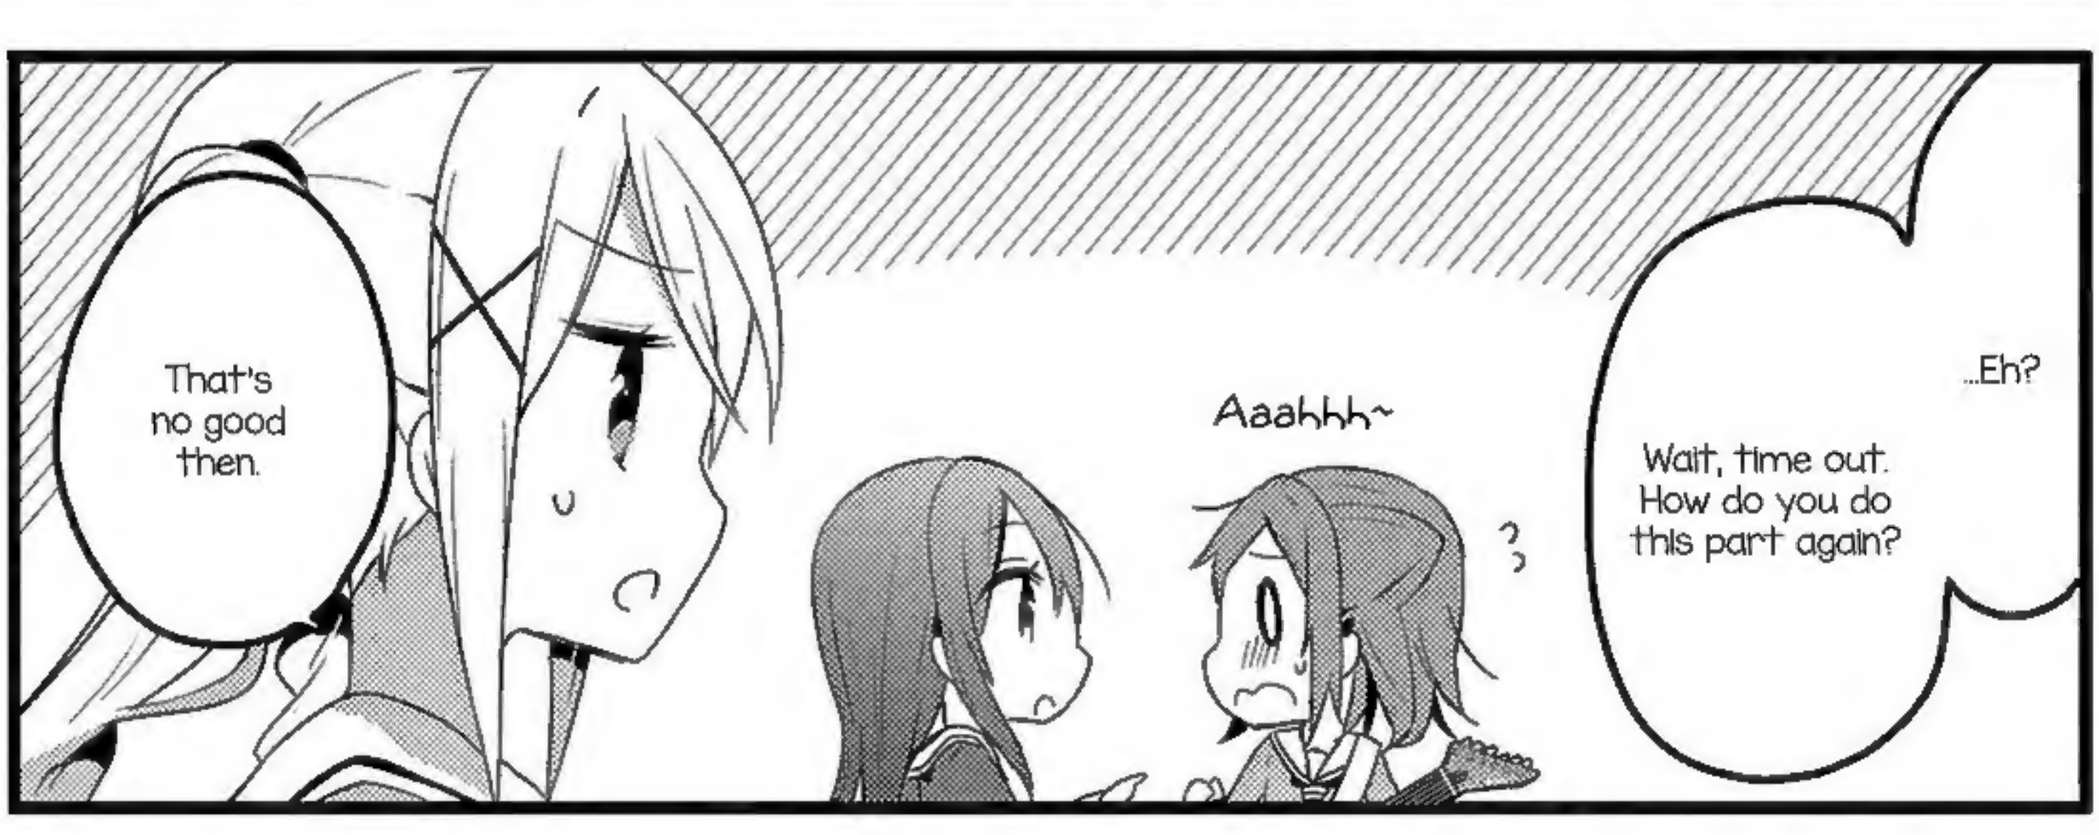
You always disappear during lunch break, what the heck have you been doing?
Oh, didn't think we'd find you here, Kasumi-chan!
ガラッ

Look and behold!
ニヤリ!
He he he

No way, you've been practicing here all this time?!
Ohhhhhh?!
Listen closely to my performance!



That's no good then.
Aaahhh~
Wait, time out. How do you do this part again?
...Eh?

Um.
You do an F chord here, then.

That's
so weird...

I was just able to do it earlier...

That doesn't make me feel any better~~

Uhh Maybe you're the type who isn't good at the actual performance?

No way~

If you're weak like this,
then you're still far away from being good.

It's all thanks to Otae!

Right!?
Rimirin, Arisa!
Thank you!

That's
true.
Almost thought you were someone else

But you're doing better than before!

That's right!

Otae, why don't you join our band?

Isn't it fine, if there's two of us?

And besides, aren't you the guitarist, Toyama-san?

I'm not interested in those things and I like to go easy on things

Guitarists don't have to be two people!

Guitarists don't have to be just one person!

It's fine, don't worry, me too

whispers

I don't understand what you mean.

I want to experience heart-racing and sparkly things with you, Otae!

That's why, let's all experience heart-racing and sparkly things, the five of us!

It'll be fine! Once we do it together, you'll know what I mean!

Geez!

I guess I have no choice.

It'll be troublesome for me if I hear you playing badly on the guitar again.

YAY~

How-e-ver!

Ehhhh...!?

Eh-

Just how I like it!

Stamina is important!

Since I'm in the band now, you all have to accompany me to my daily training!

BREAK TIME

Ah, but I'm going to the CD shop today,
so let's start
tomorrow.
She's unexpectedly my-pace!!!!

TAE HANAZONO
I'm the lead guitarist, Hanazono Tae!
We take care of over 20 rabbits in our home.
My favorite thing is of course, music! I've been playing guitar since elementary!
